ARIZONA CRIMINAL JUSTICE COMMISSION

October 2019

Letter from our Chairwoman

October is a very busy month as ACJC prepares for a number of upcoming initiatives from developing our legislative priorities to undertaking hearings on important criminal justice topics, as well as working with our statewide partners to raise awareness on domestic violence.

In Arizona alone, 43% of women and 33% of men have experienced sexual violence, physical violence, and/or stalking by an intimate partner, this is higher than the national average (NISVS, 2017). Thus, Arizona has designated October as Domestic Violence Awareness month. ACJC does its part throughout the year by continually improving services for individuals impacted by Domestic Violence through our Victims Compensation program, as well as our Criminal Justice Systems Improvement program. We have highlighted their efforts in this month's newsletter. Additionally, we are working in partnership with the Governor's Office of Youth, Faith and Family through its "Light Arizona Purple" campaign to highlight the issue and to provide valuable resources for those individuals impacted. As part of the "Light Arizona Purple" campaign, we are asking ALL Arizonans to join the effort and light their own homes purple. The Home Depot is selling purple light bulbs at all Arizona store locations with a percentage of the proceeds going to support domestic violence prevention. For more information and resources, please visit www.domesticviolence.az.gov. Finally, we encourage everyone to wear purple on October 24 to support our statewide awareness efforts.

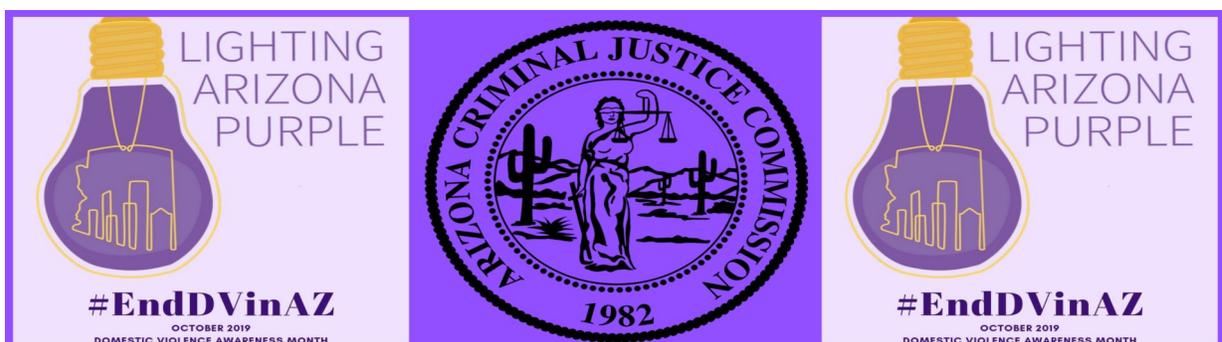

Another important ACJC initiative we are launching is our hearings on criminal justice reform. Pursuant to ACJC's statutory mandate, the focus of our hearings is on identifying available data and providing a reliable foundation for discussions on Arizona's criminal justice system. Based on the findings of the hearings, the Commission will produce a series of reports to provide a common data framework that will help legislators understand how potential policy changes may impact how Arizona's citizens interact with our criminal justice system and ultimately how we, as a state, approach criminal justice reform. It is our goal to help our policymakers better understand this complicated data and how it can and should be used to make informed, data-driven decisions on criminal justice policy changes.

On September 25, ACJC held our first hearing on "Setting the Stage: Understanding what data is available to best determine who is in our prison and probation systems and why?" The next hearing will be held on Wednesday, October 30, 2019, from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM at the Arizona Criminal Justice Commission at 1110 W Washington St # 250, Phoenix, AZ 85007. The topic is "Understanding the Sentencing Code, Recidivism, and Reentry Programs."

Finally, ACJC continues to seek to bring additional Federal criminal justice resources to agencies and organizations across Arizona. In 2019 alone, ACJC was awarded $9,841,364 in Federal formula and competitive grants.

As we look ahead to 2020, ACJC will continue to find ways to improve services to agencies across our State and throughout our Criminal Justice system.

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

ACJC's Crime Victim Assistance Program

How our agency is helping to move the needle on providing more resources for individuals impacted by domestic violence in our State

The ACJC Crime Victim Assistance Program distributes grant funds to provide victim assistance services directly to victims of crime. Funds are used to provide crisis intervention services, emergency services, support services, court related services such as advocate services, victim rights notification, training for staff and volunteers who provide direct services to victims, and other services addressing victimization.

Funding from this grant has helped to support a variety of projects including: supporting a portion of costs for Food Services Coordinators to plan and prepare meals for children at an Emergency Children's Shelter; employing an Administrative and Property Manager to guide and assist victims with transitional housing applications, housing certifications, and paperwork processes; and funding of advocate and lay legal advocate positions at emergency shelters.

Funding for training has supported a Trauma and Resilience Trainer who facilitates live and web-based training on trauma and trauma-informed care; has subsidized trainings to provide advocates and allied professionals standardized training on comprehensive victims' issues; and provided program funding to develop training for law enforcement, schools, and youth providers to support teens/students who witness or experience domestic/sexual/teen dating violence.

In FY2019, these grant funds had a significant impact on the delivery of victim services by organizations. For one agency, grant funding was used for their shelter program. One participant that came to stay at the shelter with her four children was so grateful for a comfortable and clean space of their own. Her 10-year-old child confided to a Child Advocate that this was the first time they had felt safe and they were able to sleep through the night.

Another agency utilized grant funds to facilitate the implementation and development of a victim assistance program. The funding allowed for the hire of a fulltime victim advocate. In one situation, the grant funded program provided services to a family of three that were effected by a domestic violence strangulation incident. The involvement of the victim advocate created a supportive liaison for the victim. The advocate was able to provide case status updates and the necessary guidance to obtain an order of protection and provide to law enforcement for service.

ACJC funding also allowed programs to employ more Crisis Responders. For one agency, immediate crisis response was provided for a survivor who was visiting with her boyfriend. During their first night in town, they started fighting and the boyfriend physically attacked her. The crisis responder was able to give information about what was happening, provided her with resources and helped her contact services for a forensic strangulation exam. They helped to get another hotel room and a hot breakfast, and assisted with arrangements for transportation to go back home. This agency continued to work with this survivor through the criminal justice process.

These are just a few examples highlighting how ACJC funds assisted programs to provide services to victims of domestic violence. It is through the work of these great programs that essential services and support are provided to victims of domestic violence.

Changes to the Orders of Protection/Injunctions Against Harassment Process

Why is the process changing?

- New legislation was passed that will become effective on January 1, 2020.
- Revised statutes: ARS 13-3602; ARS 13-3624; ARS 12-1809; ARS 12-1810.
- Changes implemented to improve safety, access, and efficiency of Orders of Protection/Injunctions Against Harassment for the public, law enforcement and the judicial system.

What is changing?

- The Supreme Court will now be the holder of record. Previously, the Sheriff's office was the holder of record.
- Petitioner will be able to complete an Order of Protection/Injunction Against Harassment petition online and then go to any court when they are ready for their ex-parte issuance hearing.
- When the court grants an Order of Protection, it will send it electronically through a Protection Order system to the serving agency for service. The serving agency will be responsible for printing and serving the order. This will no longer be paper-based and initiated by the plaintiff.
- Servicing agencies will have two options to electronically receive the order and update the declaration of service data: an internet web portal and a system-to-system interface (which must be developed by the servicing agency from specs provided by the Administrative Office of the Courts).
- The service agency will have 72 hours to file the affidavit, declaration, acceptance, or return of service to the court. Previously, it was 7 days.
- There are no limits to the number of attempts in serving Orders within the year of issuance.
- Removes the requirement for a law enforcement agency to request that a prosecutorial agency file charges for a violation of a protective order.
- A notification system will be created that can provide the plaintiff real time information on the status of their Order of Protection.
- The plaintiff's address and contact information will be kept confidential at all times in the new system.
- Emergency Orders of Protection will now expire 72 hours from issuance. Previously, it was 24 hours.
- After 15 days, if the order has not been served. A notification will be sent to the plaintiff requesting additional information.

What are the next steps?

- ACJC will provide training to law enforcement and victim service agencies in the fall of 2019.
- Changes will go into effect on January 1st, 2020.

If you have questions about the new system and process please contact Marc Peoples at mpeoples@azcjc.gov if you are law enforcement or constable and Kay Radwanski at Kradwanski@courts.az.gov if you are a court.
